New York's Collage Dance Collective to launch summer dance intensive

Fenton - Collage Dance Collective, in partnership with Southern Lakes Parks & Recreation, presents a 2007 Summer Intensive Under the direction of Kevin T. Thomas, acclaimed dancer, choreographer and teacher, this landmark program will launch at L High School on June 18 and conclude on July 1, with a culminating performance open to the public.

Thomas, a former principal dancer with Dance Theatre of Harlem, Cleveland/San Jose Ballet and Les Grands Ballets Canadiens, has also guested with London's Royal Ballet and has appeared on Broadway in the Phantom of the Opera.

Collage Dance Collective is an emerging contemporary ballet company that is dedicated to presenting choreography that explores the interface between modern, contemporary and classical dance by integrating movement, theatre and spoken word.

The Summer Intensive was designed specifically for beginner, intermediate and advanced students to improve classical ballet and contemporary dance techniques, as well as improve artistry and performance skills.

For more information and to register, call Southern Lakes Parks & Recreation at (810) 591-0080 or Collage Dance Collective at (212) 569-8329.
